Summary

3rd-Year Computer Science & Engineering Student | Hooghly
Engineering & Technology College

I am currently pursuing my B.Tech in CSE, with a strong foundation in programming and web development. Skilled in C, C++, Java, HTML, CSS, JavaScript, and Object-Oriented Programming (OOPs), I enjoy solving problems, building creative solutions, and exploring new technologies.

My academic journey has helped me develop a logical mindset, adaptability, and a passion for continuous learning. I'm particularly interested in software development, full-stack web development, and exploring new problem-solving techniques.
